RAIL LINK — CITY WANTS

EARLY START

Altona council will seek a deputation to the Minister for Transport over the delay in construction of a rail extension to Altona West.

The Victorian Railways Department came under attack from Cr. Les Crofts at last week's council meeting over the long-awaited Westona link.

Council has been advised that because of a lack of funds the Railways Department cannot undertake the extension for some time.

However the railways secretary said provision of the extension and an additional station could be accelerated if council or a private developer made a substantial contribution toward the cost.

"First we were expected to find money for the Board of Works, for sewerage," said Cr. Crofts. "And here we have the railways expecting us to find money now."

"What do they think we are, Father Christmas?"

We've made representations from time to time and we've been pushed into the background. About two or three years ago, we had the then Minister for Transport, Mr. Wilcox, down. I would like to see the Minister brought here to see what is going on in the area.

Cr. Crofts successfully moved that council request a deputation.

He was supported by Cr. Alan Shaw who said the Railways Department would need to do more than provide an extra "morning" train for Altona rail commuters.

"I think we should draw attention to the new timetable and point out that these people will require an extra train at night as well," Cr. Shaw said.

$10,000 beach study?

Altona Council will consider spending $10,000 on a feasibility study of Altona beach, following a motion by Cr. Harry Weaver, last week.

Cr. Weaver successfully moved that council consider this matter when setting its financial estimates for the next year.

Stewart in deputy

Altona's new deputy mayor is Cr. Ian Stewart.

Cr. Stewart was nominated for the office at last week's council meeting by Cr. Charlie Carlsson, who stood down as deputy mayor earlier this year, because of business pressure.

Cr. Carlsson's office was taken over by the present mayor, Cr. Ray Richards.

An episode of the Crawford Productions television series, "Homicide" has been filmed in Altona.

Titled Angel, it includes a scene in which a man rides a motorcycle along Altona pier.

Recently Altona council received a letter of appreciation from Crawford's first assistant director, Mr. Sherry James, for council's "kind hospitality during the making of the episode."

"I wish to thank you on behalf of our company and tell you how much we appreciate the co-operation of local government bodies and of the public in general," he said.

"The business of making pictures, which can sometimes be arduous, becomes a real pleasure on such occasions."

Commenting on the letter, Cr. Harry Weaver said: "Crawford Productions will be informing us when the episode, Angel will be on."

● Pictured above, "Homicide" actor Alwyn Kurts (right) and former cast member Leonard Teale finding their way around Altona.

When you've gotta go, where do you go?

"When you're gotta go, you're gotta go," said Cr. Bill Sommers at last week's Altona Council meeting.

He was attacking the Victorian Railways over the recent removal of toilet facilities at Galvin and Mobiltown railway stations.

The Railways Department claims that repeated vandalism has made it impossible to keep the facilities functional and that all trains serving Galvin are equipped with toilets.

The Department added that patronage at Mobiltown was almost exclusively comprised of nearby factory staff who would not have a prolonged waiting time at the station.

Cr. Sommers disagrees with the decision.

"It seems like you have to have a timetable on yourself now to decide when you've got to go," he said.

He was commenting on a letter from the secretary of the Commission of Public Health which stated that the Commission considered the attitude of the Victorian Railways Department was "reasonable".

"I think it's scandalous," said Cr. Sommers.

"I guarantee that if a person exposed himself in the area, he'd be fined $20. They talk of the 'Deprived West', well we're deprived here."

"When you've gotta go, you've gotta go."

Cr. Sommers appealed to the Press to publicise the fact that the toilets had been removed.

He was supported by Cr. Harry Weaver who said: "I believe the Altona Historical Society is soon arranging celebrations for 50 years of trains in Altona. This is a return present from the Railway — they've taken our toilets."

CITATION FOR PAT BURNS

Former Altona councillor, Mr. Pat Burns will be presented with a citation by the City of Altona, following a motion by Cr. Les Crofts at last week's council meeting.

The motion was seconded by the councillor who has taken Cr. Burns' seat on council, Cr. Alan Shaw.

After six years on council, Mr. Burns did not seek re-election this year, due to ill-health.

You name it, he collects it....

Collecting butterflies is just a sideline...

The average man has a hard time building up a big collection in any one subject — be it stamps, coins or gems.

Mr. Fin Smith has an enviable collection of four different things: shells, reptiles, gems and butterflies.

Mr. Smith of Upton Street, Altona, started collecting shells when he stumbled across a rare one called Golden Olive 20 years ago.

While walking along the beach in Port Douglas, Northern Queensland he found three others on the same night.

"People living there have looked for these shells all their lives," Mr. Smith said last Thursday.

"I was just lucky".

Some of Mr. Smith's shells are worth $300 each and he says the best place to find shells is the Barrier Reef.

"These are venomous," he pointed to some cone shaped shells, "if they sting, they can kill you".

The most valuable shell in the world (Mr. Smith only has a picture of it) is worth $2000. Call Gloria Maris, it is reddish brown, cone shaped with three cornered marks all over it.

An inexpensive stone, which looks like a miniature painting, is Mr. Smith's favorite piece in his collection. He found and polished all the stones himself.

SKULL

The skull of a 28 foot crocodile and three bottled Taipan snakes are Mr. Smith's pride in his reptile collection.

But he says the smaller reptiles are the most interesting, especially the ones found in the desert.

He says Mrs. Smith doesn't mind them around the house, as long as they're dead, but she gets a bit shaky while he catches them.

Mr. Smith, 74, was a carpenter before his retirement. He says the thrill of collecting comes with the sudden experience of finding something unexpectedly.

Apart from collecting, he enjoys shooting, fishing and other outdoor sports.

Asked why his butterfly collection was smaller than the others (60 varieties), he said he only collects the rare ones.

"I never let anybody see me running around the bushes with a net like Dr. Livingstone," he chuckled. "You would never live that down."

• Mr. Smith with some of his shells.

First prize at South Street

A Seaholme girl won a first prize at the South Street competitions at Ballarat.

Sandra Neate, 12, of Sussex Street, Seaholme, was successful with her recital of C. F. Dennis' "Hist", the test piece for the 13 years and under speech section. Sandra also received honorable mentions in the two other sections she entered, the under-13 impromptu reading and champion recital. Sandra studies under Miss Ivy Keates, of Yarraville, and is a former pupil of Mrs. S. Nette, of Altona. Earlier this year, she won the junior aggregate cup for 14 years and under at the Women's Christian Temperance Union's eisteddfod in Melbourne.

Hello girls,

We are selling summery bras now, bras for your feet that is. Homyped summer clogs. Eye catching new colors is a large range. A newcomer for comfort girls, in Homyped understanding sandal.

The sandal has a back strap for extra hold, and a no nonsense sole. No, this sandal has no platform, just comfort in shaping. The white-soled platform sandals have that well known — if you don't know, your missing out on a luxury.

This is one time when it pays to put your foot in it. Its worth it!

No! Homyped haven't stopped supplying the shaped towelling scuff — and there is still a large color range.

Two new sandals here too — come and see them.

We can keep you looking your best from head to toe here at our Amcal Pharmacy.

Revlon Flex Balsam and Protein Treatment Shampoo for each hair type is here in a big, big special plastic container. The correct shampoo for your hair is very important — and you cannot go wrong with Flex.

Follow up your shampoo with Flex Balsam and Protein instant hair conditioner and your hair couldn't be lovelier.

For completely new nail colors from Mary Quant girls. Just in time to blend with your spring color schemes.

Sultry Sapphire, Forever Amber, Evil Emerald and Tempting Turquoise — what names? But the colors are new, nice fashion.

As never before, we have the full range of Jean Mate products. From After Shower Cologne Talcum to deodorant.

Don't know Jean Mate? Have a test on yourself with the large tester bottle on the counter. Bye.

Student bashed as car stops

A Brooklyn student was bashed around the head and face when a car stopped beside him in Champion Road, Williamstown, last Friday afternoon.

Police are anxious to obtain information about an early model blue-colored Volkswagen sedan seen in the area at the time of the assault, about 4 p.m.

They have been told three youths were in the car when the student, Daryl Birch, of Viola Avenue, Brooklyn was assaulted. The car stopped beside Daryl and the back seat passenger jumped out and bashed him, for no apparent reason, police have been told.

He got back into the car and the three sped away.

Police are anxious to interview a youth aged 18-19, about 5 ft. 11 in. tall with brown hair, a fair complexion and of medium build.

He was wearing a white shirt with long sleeves and fawn trousers.

Williamstown police are heading the investigation. They can be contacted on 397 6376.

School effort

Altona High School has raised $1858 towards its grounds improvement fund. Biggest gift to date, $1500, was from the school's advisory council.

Guests attend council meet

Members of Altona Rotoract Club, Altona North Netball Club and Altona Methodist Church Netball Club were guests at last week's meeting of Altona Council.

Both netball clubs have been successful in premiership competitions and were presented with certificates of merit from the City of Altona by the mayor, Cr. Ray Richards.

Amongst the Rotoract group was president Mr. Dave Green.

Addressing the meeting the mayor, Cr. Richards, said the Rotoract Club had been formed about four years ago and had aims similar to that of its father group, Rotary.

The group gave welfare assistance to people who were not as fortunate as themselves, he said. Recently members of Rotoract had organised the collection of rubbish and painting of homes for elderly folk.

"This year the group is raising funds for building extensions to Altona District Hospital," said Cr. Richards.

Turning his comments to the successful netball clubs, Cr. Richards paid tribute to the work of Messrs. Dave Sullivan (Altona North Netball Club) and David Mannering (Altona Methodist Church Netball Club). "Altona Methodists won four premierships in five grades," he said.

Messrs. Sullivan and Mannering were both presented with certificates of merit along with the team captains. For Altona North, the Ryan sisters, Carmel and Bernadette, both received certificates.

Some of the girls from the Altona Methodist Club were wearing their netball uniforms at the meeting, having arrived straight from a game at Albert Park.

'TOWN DOWN AND OUT

Williamstown was soundly defeated by Preston in the lightning premiership preliminary final at St. Kilda on Sunday.

GOLF CLUB WINNERS

The A grade event at Kooringal Golf Club last week was won by Mrs. D. Weston (15), who finished square with the card.

The B grade winner was Mrs. L. Moran (23), who also finished square, and the C grade event went to Mrs. R. Westley (35), who was one over.

Williamstown had beaten Preston twice during the season but on Sunday the Seagulls were jumped at the start and were never in the hunt.

Preston 8.4 (52) defeated Williamstown 4.7 (31).

Goals: Jackman, Brown, Groenewegen, Patterson.

Best players: Patterson, Stillman, Jackman, James, Gill, Roach, Brown.

Votes for the first and second sixteen best and fairest awards will be counted on Monday at the Williamstown Town Hall supper room.

The function will start at 8 p.m. and admission will be $2.

Mikado showing is coming

Rehearsals are under way for Altona City Youth Theatre's production of Mikado.

Picture shows singing trio, Trevor Findlay (Nanki-Poo), Gail Poole (Yum Yum) and Coralie Evans (Pitti Sing) at rehearsals. The opera directed by Mr. Frank Waddo and Miss Jean Osborne will be musical director.

YOUR RATES AT WORK

Deputy City Engineer, Mr. Algie Joku-bauskas, made the following report on council works to last week's meeting of Altona Council.

● Kororait Creek Road duplication: Construction of 4 ft. by 18 in. culvert at CIG for future use across southern and northern carriageway was completed.

● Grieve Parade duplication: Construction of kerb and channel to the bend 900 ft. north of Kororait Creek Road was completed. Cement-stabilised fine crushed rock to underside of bitumen treated fine crushed rock layer was spread and consolidated.

● Buchanan Road construction: Construction of kerb and channel between Burgess Street drain and Burgess Street was completed. Excavation of road bed between Pearl Street and Grieve Parade is nearing completion.

● Burgess Street construction: Construction of kerb and channel between Buchanan Road and Clelland Road was completed. Layer of cement-stabilised fine crushed rock to underside of bitumen treated fine crushed rock layer was spread and consolidated.

● Altona Road—footpath: Construction of concrete path in Civic Parade between Parkside Crescent/railway line and between Civic Parade/crib crossing north of Cherry Lake outlet channel was completed.

● Drain at Apex Park: The laying of an underground drain adjacent to southern boundary of Apex Reserve was completed.

● Council properties: Painting of Infant Welfare Centre at Murphy Street was completed. Laying of vinyl tile floor in Blyth Street Kindergarten classroom was completed. Painting of office wing at council depot was completed.

● Pavilion at A. W. Langshaw Reserve: The laying of bricks for walls of the pavilion is not far off completion. Contract bricklayers, due to unsatisfactory delivery of bricks, continued with another job; however, it is hoped that they will be able to complete our brickwork in a fortnight's time.

● Conveniences at W. G. Cresser Reserve: Construction of footings for brick walls for conveniences was completed.

● Drainage: Construction of 8-in. diameter drains at the back of kerb on south side of Finley Road was completed. Construction of side entry pits associated with this work is in progress.

He's ill

Altona city engineer, Mr. Ralph Simmons, hopes to be back at work this week, after a recent illness.

Reporting to council last week, Cr. Les Crofts said he had been told this. He wished Mr. Simmons a speedy recovery.

Wine night

RSL BALL

The Altona RSL Memorial Club annual ball will be held in the clubrooms on Friday, September 28, from 8.30 p.m. to 1.30 a.m. Dennis Harrington's band will call the tune and Miss Eunice McGowan will be guest artist. For tickets ring 398 2817. Guests are limited to 120 people.

A wine and cheese tasting evening will be conducted in the Altona Civic Hall this Friday, September 21, to raise money for Altona's entrant in the Miss Australia Quest, Miss Robyn O'Sullivan, of Rose Street. Money raised from the quest is used to help spastic children.

MORE NAMES

Altona Council will list the names of people to contact in the event of local emergencies, in its next news sheet. The news sheet is distributed free, throughout the municipality, regularly.

Cr. Weaver made the request to the town clerk, Mr. Syd Fell, during his portfolio report on public relations, at last week's meeting of council.

Williamstown in big final win

Williamstown CYMS Football Club scored its second successive premiership when it outclassed South Melbourne in the grand final.

Williamstown piled on the score with and against the wind over the first three quarters to lead by a demoralising 12 goals at the last change.

The team then relaxed slightly to let South close the gap to five goals. However at no time were they a threat to Williamstown's flag.

It was a particularly strong effort as the Town were outclassed by South in the second semi-final, and just scraped home in the preliminary final.

Opening with the breeze Williamstown notched the first goal. South replied and then the Town put on four more.

South replied with two more as they fought hard to make a game of it, but Williamstown had a handy 20 point lead at the first siren.

Kicking against the wind in the second term Town consolidated their position by going further ahead.

Williamstown had two on before South got a goal. Defence was a feature of Williamstown's play throughout the four quarters.

The third quarter was all Williamstown.

With winning rucks and aerial supremacy all over the ground Town swept forward constantly.

Any South attacking moves were dealt with strongly by the strong defence, and some excellent passages of teamwork completely demoralised them.

Williamstown piled on 7.7 to South's one point, to completely sew up the game.

As some Williamstown players relaxed in the last quarter South put on three quick goals to look a threat, but a strong goal by Town in reply soon put paid to their aspirations.

Final scores: Williamstown, 17.13; South Melbourne, 12.13.

Best players: A fine team effort with R. Grima, D. Henry, J. Henry, D. Wilkie, B. Blott, J. Murphy outstanding.

Goals: B. Norton 3, K. Halley 3, D. Wilkie 2, J. Murphy 2, D. Henry 2, P. Ward, R. Zammit, R. Grima, W. Rosenzweig, D. Jones.

TROPHY WINNERS

First Eighteen: Best & Fairest: Robert Grima; second best and fairest: Dennis Wilkie; most consistent, Michael Buckley; most determined: John Murphy.

Second Eighteen: Best and fairest: George Micallef; second best and fairest, John Wright; most determined; John Zammit; most consistent, John Lewer; most attentive at training, Jeff Stonehouse; best clubmen, Eric Corfield, Tony Williamson; special award for services rendered, Kevin Thompson.

As well as winning the club's best and fairest, Robert Grima also took off the CYMS competition best and fairest award. Congratulations to Robert and all other trophy winners.

Schools on the move

Altona High School Advisory Council is considering the development of a gymnasium a theatre complex and at a future date, a cafeteria, on the school grounds in addition to overall development of the school grounds.

A statement to this effect was recently sent to Altona Council by school principal, Mr. F. McDonald.

Council meanwhile, has advised the Minister for Youth, Sport and Recreation that it desires, within the ambit of policy still to be determined by the Government, to consider ground development at Altona North and Altona High Schools for use for combined school and community purposes.

$550 for autism

Money raised from an art show in Williamstown has been sent to the Autistic Children's Society.

WILKINSON GRAVE IS RESTORED

The Williamstown Historical Society has been instrumental in having the grave of the Rev. George Wilkinson restored.

The Rev. Wilkinson was the first vicar of the present Holy Trinity Church of England, Williamstown. It is situated in the cemetery in Champion Road.

George Wilkinson, a County Cork man, was 52 when he became vicar of the prefabricated iron church which Bishop Perry had imported from England, and which became known as the "Iron Pot" because, when a strong sun beat down, the worshippers roasted.

For most of his incumbency he had to make do in the "Iron Pot," and it must have been a great occasion for him when Bishop Perry set the foundation stone of today's church on February 11, 1871, and the blue stone walls began to rise.

It was a handsome church, built on clean and simple lines, and it opened on October 3, 1874.

Wilkinson was a perfectionist in everything, whether saving souls or cultivating the rectory garden.

With a full beard rippling down his chest, he looked like an Old Testament prophet: at times he also spoke like one, but he had a saving gentleness except perhaps when he was denouncing the evils of drink.

The Wilkinson Drinking Fountain was erected to his memory in 1876, a year after his death. Standing on a corner of the Commonwealth Reserve, near the Customs House, it is classified by the National Trust among Victoria's "objects of interest".

The words "Keep the pavement dry" are woven into the quaint decorative cast iron shelter above the faucet of Wilkinson's fountain, and whether these are intended to be read literally is not clear.

The annual general meeting of the Williamstown Historical Society will be held in the Mechanics' Institute, Elcitra Street, Williamstown, on Thursday, August 23, at 8 p.m.

Subscription is $1, which covers six meetings and six newsletters: Miss W. Stewart of 74 Pascoe Street, Williamstown, is secretary and her phone number is 397 6774.

Organisers of the show, the Williamstown chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, sent $550 to the autistic society.

Beta Sigma Phi vice-president Mrs. J. E. Rose said last week that the group had helped various local charities over the years.

Mrs. Rose spoke recently at a Rotary men's luncheon.

Wallet goes at gymnasium

A Williamstown man had his wallet, containing $33, stolen while he was at a health studio between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. last Saturday.

He is Mr. Raymond O'Keefe, serviceman, of Roches Street, Williamstown. The health studio he was at is in Barkly Street, West Footscray.

The wallet was stolen from a bag in an unlocked locker in the changing room.

A South Kingsville man, Mr. Peter Moore, had his wallet stolen between the same times, at the same place on the same day. It contained $45.

Detectives from Footscray CIB are investigating.
